REDS

AMOROSSO | ITALY

The name is a combination of the words "Love" and "Red" in Italian and as it suggests, this wine is dark crimson in color and of a deep complexity on the palate and nose. It exudes astounding spicy aromas and boasts highly tannic flavors of wood and nuts.

BOURG ROYAL RED | CALIFORNIA

A charming red wine consisting of burgundy reflections in the glass. A Mosti Mondiale proprietary blend – cherries and other more subtle small fruit flavors combine to make a truly exceptional wine with depth and staying power.

CABERLOT | CALIFORNIA

This popular blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot is extremely well-known. It is warm, full bodied, and intense. This wine will provide a beautiful berry bouquet along with full oaky characteristics. The lush, soft character of Merlot is the perfect foil for Cabernet's intensity, resulting in a smooth red wine.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON | CALIFORNIA

Regarded as the king of red wine grapes and for good reason; tannins and a solid structure will ensure this wine pleases at every stage of its aging process. Able to deliver fresh fruity and herblike notes when young and more subtle cedar and oak nuances after some time in the bottle.

CASTEL DEL PAPA | ITALY

A Mosti Mondiale proprietary blend, this full-bodied rich red offers a nice longevity on the palate. Composed of several grape varieties, its complexity is bursting with notes of blackcurrants, nutmeg, cinnamon and herbs.

IL TOSCANO | ITALY

A charming medium-full bodied wine that brings memories of great red wines sipped in between rows of grapes in picturesque Tuscan vineyards. A medium-high acidity ensures a fresh attack of floral and nutty characteristics. Can greatly benefit from time in the bottle in order for all its varied flavors to marry and create even more complexity.

LAMBRUSCO | ITALY

Known in Italy as a wine produced with at least some level of sparkling or frizzante, although this requires a special process. Fermented dry, this wine presents concentrated jammy notes on the palate and fruity cherry and raspberry elements on the nose, combined they produce a wine with a unique individualistic character.

MALBEC | CHILE

Malbec boasts a hypnotizing dark purple color that matches exceptionally well with its deep tannins – both combine to create a deep and complex structure, unrivaled by many New World wines. Hints of plum, coffee and cooked berries.

MERLOT | ITALY

Low-medium acidity and a well-rounded structure propose a wine that offers practically unlimited pairing options; whether with honey-glazed spare ribs or duck confit, this Merlot promises uncompromised and unprecedented versatility. Great complexity (even with the simplest dishes) and a silky mouthfeel will make it an unforgettable experience.

MONTEPULCIANO | ITALY

An alluring ruby color with occasional modest purple reflections seem to be a perfect match for this wine's warm mouthfeel and bouquet of mulberries and plums. Swirling in the mouth will reveal black cherries and chocolate. Serve at room temperature.

NEBBIOLO | ITALY

It is said that the name was derived from the Italian word nebbia, which means fog, because of the fog that sets over some Nebbiolo grape crops during its harvesting period. The result is an imposing red wine with notes of plum and raspberries, as well as some smoky characteristics.

NERO D'AVOLA | ITALY

Deeply ingrained in Sicilian soil, this grape that produces dark and full-bodied red wines is by far the island's most important variety. Dry and velvety, this wine will completely envelop the senses if allowed to fully mature in the bottle. A rich experience every wine lover must experience.

PETITE SYRAH | CALIFORNIA

A dry and woody ruby red wine exploding with bites of fruits, freshly-cut grass and thyme. Fleishy tannins and a broad texture combine to give this wine a spicy touch. Savor between 15° and 17°C (59° - 63° F).

PINOMER | CALIFORNIA

This beautiful blend of Pinot Noir and Merlot combines two relatively soft and delicate reds that result in a wine that is full bodied and incredibly smooth. The intense red berry flavor is enhanced by the spicy character of the Merlot, creating a truly unique experience.

REDS *continuedPINOT NOIR | CALIFORNIA

The nose exudes some floral, fruity & spicy notes while it develops flavors of strawberries and dark cherries. Smooth tannins allow early drinking, although it has a good potential for aging in ideal environments.

SANGIOVESE | ITALY

Sangiovese typically packs a strong acidity, which gently mellows with time. A difficult grape with a huge potential for great wine. Can be drank very young, where some bitterness may be evident – or aged to perfection.

SHIRAZ MONDIALE | CALIFORNIA

This dark-skinned varietal is well-known for producing wonderfully full-bodied red wines and this is no exception. A spicy complexity on the nose lends itself to a fleshy texture. Pepper and cigars are also present, especially with some bottle aging.

SHIRAZ/MERLOT | CALIFORNIA

The body of a Shiraz and the suave overall character of the Merlot grape make this a classic blend worthy of all occasions. Smoky aromatic characteristics combine with fruity flavors like cherries and dark wild berries.

VALLE DEI TEMPI | ITALY

A silky red wine with a very slight mineral edge on the palate, and fruity characteristics on the nose. Flavors of dark espresso and chocolate are ever so present. Complexity greatly deepens with age.

ZINFANDEL | CALIFORNIA

Well-known for creating jammy, hearty wines full of earthy, smoky and spicy notes. Barrel aging really brings this wine together by incorporating a vanilla undertone often synonymous with French oak.

WHITES*BLANC DES CHATEAUX | CALIFORNIA

Dry and medium-bodied displaying a light acidity. Evokes mineral and floral notes along with a broad texture on the palate. Drink between 10°C (50°F) and 12°C (54°F) for a refreshing experience.

CHARDASIA | CALIFORNIA

This proprietary blend of Chardonnay and Malvasia is arguably the most pleasant marriage of two white grape varieties. The incredibly intense, fruit filled bouquet and flavor of the Malvasia is paired beautifully with the buttery, vanilla and apple like character of the Chardonnay.

CHARDONNAY | CALIFORNIA

A dry and rather edgy white wine with flavors on the palate reminding one of pineapples and unripe, crunchy apples with a bite of acidity. With some age, this Chardonnay will develop a nice buttery mouthfeel that is hard to dislike.

WHITES *continuedGEWÜRZTRAMINER | CALIFORNIA

A highly aromatic white wine that has gained much ground as of late and has become a beloved white varietal around the globe. Boasts a rich and exotic mouthfeel.

GRIGIONNAY | CALIFORNIA

A true blend of Pinot Grigio and Chardonnay, this awesome marriage of two grape varieties presents all the best characteristics that lie within each variety. The dry, crisp, and acidic characteristics of the Pinot Grigio seem to have been made to blend in perfectly with the buttery, nutty and vanilla tones of the Chardonnay. The slight oak finish helps to wrap up the flavors in a wonderful way.

IL VENETO | ITALY

A charming white wine with a unique combination of mineral and fruity aromas. Perfect paired with shellfish and crab.

LIEBFRAU MILCH STYLE | CALIFORNIA

Typically blended with Muller-Thurgau and Riesling, it is presented as a light and elegant wine with a sustained pale-yellow color. Enjoy its sweet fruitiness flavors that create a truly mellow wine. Its rich fruity nose suggests fresh-apples along with subtle spices.

PINOT GRIGIO | ITALY

The skin of the Pinot Grigio grape is actually of a grayish hue, often resulting in a rather dark yellow-colored wine. On the palate, it displays notes of pears and citrus.

RIESLING | CALIFORNIA

A plethora of aromas and flavors include pear, honey, raw sugar and ripe figs. The fruitiness of this wine is very noticeable, but never overpowering or offensive.

SAUVIGNON BLANC | CALIFORNIA

Pleasant acidity and balanced aromas make this wine a superstar among white wines. Its flavors are reminiscent of kiwis and exotic fruits.

TREBBIANO | ITALY

A refreshing white wine with a unique acidic flavor characteristic. Citrusy and herbaceous flavors will develop with some age. Stands up surprisingly well to oak aging.

ROSÉ*ZINFANDEL WHITE | CALIFORNIA

A light-colored Zinfandel with a refreshing bite and fruity characteristics on the palate. A subtle taste of vanilla combined with strawberries and other light fruits.
